Standing Committee of NAAC held on November 5, 2016 and shall remain valid for the next five years.

The University was assessed and evaluated on teaching and co-curricular activities, research work and extension & infrastructure facilities by the seven-member peer NAAC led by Prof. (Dr.) Avinash C. Pandey (former Vice-Chancellor, Bundelkhand University) from October 13 - 15, 2016.

The highest body of evaluation for the Universities and Colleges in the country held series of meetings with the Vice-Chancellor, Heads of the Departments, Deans and other members of the University.

The NAAC Peer Team assessed the University on its parameters and key aspects during its visit and inspected all the facilities like labs, workshops, libraries and other student support services and had extensive interaction with faculty, students, alumni, parents and senior functionaries of the University, besides examining all records maintained by the University.

Prof. Dinesh Kumar, Vice Chancellor of the YMCA University expressed gratitude towards the Governor, who is also Chancellor of the Universities, Prof. Kaptan Singh Solanki, Chief Minister, Mr. Manohar Lal and Education Minister, Mr. Ram Bilas Sharma for extending full support to the University due to which it has been able to receive the 'A' grade.

Congratulating University teachers, scholars and supporting staff for this great achievement, Prof. Dinesh Kumar assured them of increasing the pace of overall development by removing any kind of impediment with the spirit of team work.

Registrar, Dr. SK Sharma said that in a short span of seven years, the YMCA University has been able to receive accreditation and achieve the distinction of being awarded the 'A' grade from NAAC. It is a fitting tribute to the outstanding contribution of all individuals connected to the University, he added.
